

Best trio of Geese, Geo. Q. Cannon, $2.
 Best trio of turkeys, James Solomon, $2.
 Best trio of Cayuga duck, Geo. Q. Cannon, $1.
 Best Guinea fowls, John Solomon, $1.
 Best pair fan-tailed pigeons, Jas. Solomon, $1.
 Best pair tumbler pigeons, Jas. Solomon, $1.
 Best pair Jacobin pigeons, Henry A. Dixon, $1.
 Best collection of pigeons, James Solomon, $2.
 Best pair rabbits, Elmer D. Reese, $1.
 Best pair Guinea pigs, Albert Shaw, 50c.
 Best hive of bees, Geo. Bailey, diploma.
 Best 10 pounds extracted honey, Geo. Bailey, $2.
 Best 10 pounds of comb honey, Geo. Bailey, $2.
 Best 10 pounds of bees wax, Geo. Bailey, $2.
 Honorable mention is made of the globe of honey exhibited by J. E. Murphy, which was a curiosity, showing the workings and ingenuity of the bees.

CLASS I—SWINE.

Awarding Committee.—Charles Popper, David Hilton and C. H. Wilcken.
 Best Berkshire hog, owned by Wm. Wood, $2.

CLASS J—MINERALS.

Awarding Committee.—J. L. Barfoot, Joab Lawrence and M. T. Burgess.

Division 1.

For best collection of gold and silver bearing ores and metallic minerals, Dr. Wm. Bredemeyer, gold medal.
 For silver ores from Parley's Park, Empire Mining Company, diploma.
 For silver-lead ores from Big Cottonwood district, Walker Bros., diploma.
 For brown hematite iron ore from Tintic district, John W. Snell, honorable mention.

Division 2.

For best exhibit of paraffine wax and jet from Utah, G. W. Rose, diploma.
 For best exhibit of china and earthenware and glass-making materials, O. B. Shaw, diploma.
 For best exhibit of polishing materials, Dimmock & Hurlbert, diploma.
 For best exhibit of salt, John W. Snell, honorable mention.
 For best exhibit of plaster of Paris (gypsum), Morris & Evans, honorable mention.
 Cabinet of mineral specimens, Edmund F. Bird; an interesting collection.
 Cabinet of fossils, Newman & Reed; an interesting collection.
 Exhibit of home manufactures, F. Dufton & Co., Logan, Cache County, Utah, diploma.
 Coal from Lost Creek, Browning & Co., diploma.
 Mountain ice, John Heil, honorable mention.
 Specimen of cinnamon from Camp Floyd, M. T. Gisborn, honorable mention.

CLASS K—CARRIAGES, FARMING IMPLEMENTS, ETC.

Awarding Committee.—Francis Armstrong, J. R. Hiller, C. Bagley, D. Hutchison, Anson Call, Joshua Terry and A. Hopper.
 Your committee appointed to examine imported machinery, wagons, carriages, and all kinds of agricultural implements and miscellaneous imported articles on exhibition at the fair grounds, respectfully report the following as being, in their judgment, the best adapted for use in this country and climate, and as such recommend them to the favorable notice of the public.
 In George A. Lowe's department we recommend the following—The Keystone cider mill; the barbed wire fencing; the Buckeye grain drill; the Lyon feed cutter; the Faust and Bradley scraper; the garden wheelbarrow; sunshade for seats.
 In A. J. Johnson's department—The Osborn self-binder, and the Coate's hay rake.
 In H. B. Clawson's department—The Challenge mill for grinding feed; the Morrison's cultivator; the Planet, Jr., garden seed drill; the farm bell, No. 28.
 In the Studebaker Brothers' department—The four spring wagon for family use; the side-spring buggy; the elliptic spring buggy.

In L. B. Mattison's department—The Champion reaper and mower.
 In Naylor Brothers' department—The Cooper farm and freight wagon.
 The Schuttler steel skein wagon came in too late to be examined by the committee and consequently was not passed upon.
 The plows of various kinds on exhibition were not considered by the committee, they having been reported upon by the committee on plowing match.
 The committee award to Dan Hutchison a diploma for home-made side bar and elliptic spring buggies; and to—Anderson, a diploma for his home-made steam engine.

CLASS L—CIVIL AND MECHANICAL ENGINEERING.

Awarding Committee.—Chas. L. Stevenson, Benjamin Bullough, W. B. Armstrong, M. T. Burgess.
 Best finished drawing of machinery, Wm. J. Silver, diploma.
 Best line shaded drawing of machinery, Fera Young, diploma.
 Best mining map and sections, Dr. W. E. Bredemeyer, diploma.
 Best mining car, D. Hutchison, $3.
 Best railroad frog, U. C. R. R., silver medal.
 Best model of ship, A. Cooke, $3.
 Best slotting machine, U. C. R. R., diploma.
 Best flue sheet cutter, U. C. R. R., bronze medal.
 Best coupling for shafting, W. J. Silver, silver medal.
 Best steam whistle, W. J. Silver, bronze medal.
 Best steam pipe expansion joints, W. J. Silver, silver medal.
 Best tamping bars, W. J. Silver, $3.
 Best pump valve, W. J. Silver, silver medal.
 Best iron lasts, posts and sockets, W. J. Silver, $3.
 Best mining bucket hook, D. Hutchison, silver medal.
 Best assortment taps, reamers, etc., U. C. R. R., diploma.
 Best lubricators, U. C. R. R., bronze medal.
 Best axle box, U. C. R. R., bronze medal.
 Best hand car, U. C. R. R., silver medal.
 Best car coupling, U. C. R. R., silver medal.
 Best car spring, U. C. R. R., silver medal.
 Best track tools, U. C. R. R., silver medal.

CLASS M—SHOES.

Awarding Committee.—Edward Snelgrove, Richard Collett and David Woodmansee.
 Best pair of gent's fine boots, Z. C. M. I. Shoe Factory, $2.
 Best pair of gent's fine shoes, Jas. Payne, $1.
 Best pair of gent's coarse boots, Paris Co-op, $1.
 Best pair of gent's coarse shoes, Paris Co-op, $1.
 Best assortment of fine boots and shoes, Z. C. M. I. Shoe Factory, diploma.
 Best assortment of "common sense" boots and shoes, Z. C. M. I. Shoe Factory, silver medal.
 Best assortment of lasts, James Peters, bronze medal.
 We would recommend as being worthy of favorable notice the rotary heel for boots and shoes, exhibited by Mr. Charles Barrell, and a cork shoe by the same gentleman.

CLASS N—SADDLES AND HARNESS.

Awarding Committee.—C. H. Crow, F. Platt and Louis Hook.
 Best fine saddle, F. Platt, $2.
 Best Vaquero saddle, Wallin & Pickard, $2.
 Second best fine saddle, Jenkins & Sons, $2.
 Second best Vaquero saddle, Crow & Bowring, $2.
 Best light double harness, F. Platt, $2.
 Best single harness, Wm. Gorrings, $1.
 Best express harness, Jenkins & Sons, $2.
 Best Concord harness, F. Platt, $2.
 Best dray harness, Wm. Gorrings, $2.
 Best braided hair bridle, made by G. Berger (entirely), $2.
 Best whip, Wallin & Pickard, $1.
 Best pair of braided reins, Wallin & Pickard, $1.
 Goat harness, made by Walter Clawson, only 13 years old, $1.

CLASS M—LEATHER.

Awarding Committee.—Rodney Hillam and Joshua Taylor.
 Best two sides of sole leather.

None on exhibition that merited a prize.

Best two sides upper leather, (cow hide) Z. C. M. I. Tannery, bronze medal.
 Best two sides black grain, Z. C. M. I. Tannery, bronze medal.
 Best two kip skins, Z. C. M. I. Tannery, bronze medal.
 Best two calf skins, Z. C. M. I. Tannery, bronze medal.
 Best two Morocco skins, Robert Morris, diploma.
 Best two sides harness leather, Z. C. M. I. Tannery, bronze medal.
 Best two sides of bridle leather, Z. C. M. I. Tannery, bronze medal.
 Best two sides skirting leather, Z. C. M. I. Tannery, bronze medal.
 The buff upper exhibited by Z. C. M. I. was excellent and worthy of a prize.
 The colored roans exhibited by Robert Morris were very creditable, worthy of special notice and honorable mention.

CLASS N—DOMESTIC DRY GOODS.

Awarding Committee.—John Needham, A. N. McFarlane and William Cowley.
 Best ten pieces home made cloth, Provo Manufacturing Company, gold medal.
 Best piece of home made cassimere, Provo Manufacturing Company, $3.
 Best piece of home made tweed, Wasatch and Deseret Woolen Mills, $3.
 Best piece of home made kersey, Provo Manufacturing Company, $3.
 Best piece home made jeans, Wasatch and Deseret Woolen Mills, $3.
 Best piece home made white linsey, Wasatch and Deseret Woolen Mills, $3.
 Best piece home made colored linsey, Wasatch and Deseret Woolen Mills, $3.
 Best piece home made colored flannel, Provo Manufacturing Co., $3.
 Best piece home made white flannel, Provo Manufacturing Company, $3.
 Best dye on any cloth, regardless of texture, Provo Manufacturing Company, $3.
 Best piece rag carpet, Wasatch and Deseret Woolen Mills, $3.
 Best pair white blankets, Provo Manufacturing Company, $3.
 Best pair colored blankets, Provo Manufacturing Company, $3.
 Best woolen shawl, Provo Manufacturing Company, $4.
 Best repellants, (or waterproof), Provo Manufacturing Company, $3.
 Best umbrellas and parasols, (home made), Robertson and Mackenzie, diploma.
 Best beaver robe and other furs, A. Anderson, diploma.
 Best home made fancy gloves, A. Anderson, $1.
 Best home made cotton quilt, towel and table spread, James Haygan, $4.

CLASS P—FURNITURE.

Awarding Committee.—J. P. Engstrom, James Bird, G. Trip-lit.
 Clock case and bracket; for best carving and design, E. F. Bird, bronze medal.
 Book case, without secretary; for best carving, design and workmanship, E. F. Bird, silver medal.
 One set of bedroom furniture; for good carving, design and workmanship, E. F. Bird, silver medal.
 Book case, with secretary; plain in design with good workmanship, John C. Sandberg & Co., bronze medal.
 Oval centre table, John C. Sandberg & Co., bronze medal.
 Two school desks, John C. Sandberg & Co., diploma.
 Three chairs from Z. C. M. I. with imported frames and material; good design and upholstering very good.

CLASS Q—FINE ARTS, ETC.

Awarding Committee.—John Jacques, H. L. A. Culmer, A. F. Mitchell, Miss C. A. Rutherford, John Tullidge.

Division 1.—Painting, Drawing, etc.,

Best historical painting, "Last of the Aztecs," G. M. Ottinger, gold medal.
 Best landscape painting (Utah scenery) "Young's Peak," G. M. Ottinger, silver medal.
 Second best landscape painting (Utah scenery) "Residence and grounds of F. D. Walker," Carl Dahlgreen, bronze medal.
 Best original water color painting, "Pansis," Mrs. Bascombe, silver medal.

Second best original water color painting, "Flower Pair," James Jennings, bronze medal.
 Best specimen of calligraphy or penmanship, "Birds Nest," G. E. Wallace, bronze medal.
 Second best, W. N. B. Shepherd, $1.50.
 Best ornamental painting on wood and china, "Flowers," Mrs. Bascombe, bronze medal.
 Best silk banner or flag, "Firemen's banner," G. M. Ottinger, bronze medal.

Division 2—Photographing.

Best display of portrait and landscape photographs, C. R. Savage, gold medal.
 Second best display of portrait and landscape photographs, Charles Eickenberg, silver medal.
 Best colored photograph, "Lady in Pink," Miss C. A. Rutherford, bronze medal.

Division 4.—Printing, Bookbinding, Paper, Type, etc.

Best display of tabular, colored, and plain printing, Star Office, silver medal.
 Best display of blank books and book-ruling, book-printing and binding, and printing and wrapping paper, DESERET NEWS Office, silver medal.
 Best specimen of assorted type, DESERET NEWS Office, bronze medal.
 Best stereotype and electrotypes plates, J. S. McLaren, silver medal.
 Your awarding committee found meritorious articles on exhibition not specially designated in the list of premiums. Your committee beg to recommend the following articles for the prizes offered to them respectively:

Best original figure painting, "Gypsy Camp," Dan Weggeland, gold medal.
 Second best, "Two Aztecs," G. M. Ottinger, diploma.
 Best painting, after the old masters, "Adam and Eve," after L. Carracci, Dan Weggeland, diploma.
 Best animal painting, after the old masters, "Retriever," after Diecker, John Tullidge, silver medal.
 Second best, "Horse Fair," after Rosa Bonheur, Mrs. Pierce, diploma.
 Best fruit painting, A. F. Mitchell, bronze medal.
 Collection of original landscapes, R. Kirkham, silver medal.
 Best collection of colored photographs, including crayon drawing of President John Taylor, Miss C. A. Rutherford, gold medal.
 Water color painting, "Bust of Joseph Smith," with ornamental border, W. N. B. Shepherd, silver medal.
 Oriental work on glass, "Cross," with flowers, M. Lenzi, diploma.
 Best collection of tin types, Anderson & Co., silver medal.
 Your committee wish to make honorable mention of two oil paintings by Colonel James Fairmen, of London, "Melrose Abbey" and "Beach at Jaffa," which they consider the finest that have ever been exhibited in the Territory. They were kindly loaned to the Fair by Rev. W. M. Barrows.

CLASS R—OILS, PAINTS, ETC.

Awarding Committee.—T. V. Williams, Alexander Rogers and Thos. W. Jennings.
 Best blueing and writing fluid, J. W. Snell, bronze medal.
 Best five pounds starch, John Van Cott, $1.
 Best one dozen bottles Jamaica ginger, R. Matthews & Co., $1.
 Best collection boot polish, blueing, axle grease and baking powder, Dufton & Co., Logan, bronze medal.
 Best variety of toilet and fancy soap, Utah Soap Factory, diploma.
 Best sample of castile soap, Dufton & Co., Logan, diploma.
 Best and largest display of laundry and domestic soap, Henry Snell, diploma.

CLASS S—HARDWARE, ETC.

Awarding Committee.—T. V. Williams, Jos. A. Peck and Job Smith.
 Best cutlery, J. Barker, diploma.
 Best assortment of baskets, Jane S. Smith, bronze medal.
 Best iron fencing, D. Dunne, silver medal.
 Best iron gate, D. Dunne, bronze medal.
 Best car stove, U. C. R. R., diploma.

Best specimen basket willows, Job Smith, $1.
 Best mat made of corn husks, E. Hoagland, 50c.

CLASS T—LADIES' WORK.

Awarding Committee.—Mrs. P. M. Staines, Mrs. M. M. Barratt, Mrs. Elmira S. Taylor, Miss Sedenia Pack, Miss Belle Clayton.

Division 1.

Best collection of useful and ornamental articles produced by any relief society, Fourteenth Ward, silver medal.
 Best two pounds cocoons, Hardy V. Carlisle, $2.
 Best one pound cocoons, Anna L. Clark (girl under 13 years), $1.
 Best one pound reeled silk, Annette A. Cummings, $2.50.
 Best half dozen neckerchiefs, Daniel Graves, $2.
 Best vest pattern, Daniel Graves, bronze medal.
 Best pair stockings, raw silk, Daniel Graves, $1.

Division 2.

Best lace collar, Mrs. L. N. Crompton, $1.
 Best tatted collar, Jane C. Richardson, 75c.
 Best specimen of crochet work, S. J. Spencer, $1.
 Second best specimen crochet work, Miss Adams, 75c.
 Best Honiton lace handkerchief, Edna Clawson, $2.
 Best Honiton lace tab, Mrs. E. L. Morton, $1.
 Best samples work by a girl 10 years old, Margaret E. Cahoon, $1.
 Best knitted bedspread, Mrs. Snyder, $1.
 The committee desire to call attention to a fine specimen of India court dress, exhibited by Mrs. Bredemeyer.
 Best specimen of hair jewelry; Mrs. J. E. Gregory, $1.

Division 3.

Best specimen of silk embroidery, Mrs. Long, $1.50.
 Best embroidered skirt, Mrs. Roundy, $1.
 Best embroidered infant's cloak, Mrs. Roundy, $1.
 Best specimen of braided work, Mrs. Roundy, $1.
 Best ornamental needlework, Mrs. M. A. Cook, $1.
 Best worsted embroidery, Maomi Clark, $1.
 Best embroidered cushion, Miss Adams, $1.
 Second best embroidered cushion, Joan M. Campbell, 75c.
 Best embroidered ottoman cover, C. Crisman, $1.
 Best child's worsted hood, Mrs. Long, $1.
 Best child's worsted shoes, Mrs. Long, 75c.
 Best child's worsted sacque, Mrs. Long, 75c.
 Best crochet woolen shawl, Angelina Scappatura, $1.
 Best crochet woolen shawl, Scott Hudson, $1.
 Best fancy hair work, Julia E. Rawlins, $1.50.
 Best switch and curls, Mrs. Wilkinson, $1.
 Best toilet mat, M. Raleigh, 75c.
 Best lamp mat, Grace Richardson, 50c.
 Best canvas tidy, Joan M. Campbell, 50c.
 Best worsted flowers, Martha Millen, 75c.
 Best wax fruit, Louisa Davis, $1.
 Best wax flowers, Mary E. Wallace, $1.
 Best fancy card basket, S. J. Spencer, 50c.
 Best perforated card board work, Lulu Kelly, diploma.
 Best specimen of fancy leather work, Louisa Davis, $1.
 Superior specimen of wax autumn leaves, Julia E. Rawlins, $1.
 Fine specimen of preserved flowers, Louisa Davis, $1.
 Largest display of hair work, Mrs. J. E. Gregory, diplomas.
 Best workmanship in hair, Mrs. Wilkinson, diploma.
 Best pond lily, in wax, Lizzie Stevenson, $1.
 Best antimacassar, Scott Hudson, $1.
 Best sewing machine work, Mary E. Wallace, $2.
 Best natural autumn leaves, Louisa Davis, $1.

Division 4.

Best artificial flowers, Susan Homestead, $1.
 Best ladies' straw hats, S. J. Spencer, $1.
 Best darning work, Mrs. Cain-Richards, $1.
 Second best specimen of card work, Miss E. Cooper, 75c.
 Best specimen of horse hair work made from a family of horses, Alice and Anna Winder, 75c.

Concluded on page 623.